As a program of the Recreation Council, Ride to Unite, formerly Cycle St. Louis creates cycling opportunities for children and adults of all abilities in the Metro area.

Our ambition of Cycling Without Limits aligns perfectly with Leisure Without Limits, the vision our parent organization, the Recreation Council. RTU volunteers, together with local partners, will continue to create cycling opportunities for children and adults with disabilities in the St. Louis area. These efforts include providing access to adapted cycles, communications about a variety of cycling resources, and facilitating opportunities for individuals to participate in organized rides. Ride to Unite is a group of nonprofit organizations and individuals who come together to create cycling opportunities for children and adults of all abilities in the St. Louis Metro area.

RIDE TO UNITE at the Gateway Cup

This non-competitive, FREE, family-friendly ride happens annually on Labor Day in Francis Park in St. Louis, MO. This event brings people of all ages and abilities together to enjoy a non-competitive 5-mile ride around the prestigious Bommarito Audi Gateway Cup Course alongside elite cyclists and local celebrities.

Tips on Finding a Recreation Program Just Right for You

When choosing a leisure/recreation program or activity, gather as much information about that program or activity as possible. Keep in mind your specific support needs and interests. Before contacting program staff, make a list of questions to ask, and write down information about your support needs in order that they can successfully include you in the recreation program. Here are some questions you might include in your list before enrolling:

- Who handles special needs and accommodations for your program?
- Is the program or activity site accessible? Is the site safe for my needs?
- Can I visit the program or facility for a trial before I enroll?
- What is the ratio of staff to participants in the program I selected?
- Does the staff receive training on the needs of individuals with disabilities?
- Do I need to wear or bring anything special with me to this activity?
- Do you offer any scholarships, discounts, or reduced fees?
- What is your cancellation policy if I choose to withdraw from a program or activity?
